Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Chapter 1 Rhetorical Constructions of Deafness: Discovering All the Available Means of Persuasion 1

Part 1 Deafness as Disability

Chapter 2 Deafness, Literacy, Rhetoric: Legacies of Language and Communication 23

Chapter 3 “It’s So Hard to Believe That You Pass”: A Hearing-Impaired Student Writing on the Borders of Language 50

~Interlude 1: On (Almost) Passing 81

Part 2 Deafness as Pathology

Chapter 4 Diagnosing Deafness: The Audiologist’s Authority 103

~Interlude 2: Interpellations: “Call to A. G. Bell” and “Assessment of the Speech-Reception Threshold” 145

Part 3 Deafness as Culture

Chapter 5 The Coming Out of Deaf Culture: Repeating, Reversing, Revising Rhetorics 151

Chapter 6 Words Another Way: Of Presence, Vision, Silence, and Politics in Sign Language Poetry 201

~Interlude 3: Are You Deaf or Hearing? 237

Bibliography 261

Index 285

vii