Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction ix

Part One/Overview

1 Psychotherapy with Deaf People: The Ethical Dimension 3
   Irene W. Leigh and Virginia Gutman

2 The Diversity of Consumer Knowledge, Attitudes, Beliefs, and Experiences 18
   Annie G. Steinberg, Ruth C. Loew, and Vicki Joy Sullivan

3 Deaf Therapists and the Deaf Community: Issues to Consider 39
   Irene W. Leigh and Jeffrey W. Lewis

Part Two/Diverse Communities

4 The Evolution of Psychotherapy for Deaf Women 65
   Tovah M. Wax

5 Therapy Issues with Lesbians, Gay Men, Bisexuals and Transgender Individuals Who are Deaf 85
   Virginia Gutman and Thomas Zangas

6 Hearing Children of Deaf Parents: Issues and Interventions within a Bicultural Context 109
   Shirley Shultz Myers, Alan L. Marcus, and Randall R. Myers

7 Psychotherapy for People with Usher Syndrome 136
   Karen Bailey and Ilene D. Miner
Part Three/The Ethnic Dimension

8 Mental Health Issues for African American Deaf People
   Carolyn A. Corbett
   161

9 Culturally Responsive Psychotherapy with Deaf American Indians
   Nancy Eldredge
   183

10 Asian American and Deaf
   Cheryl L. Wu and Nancy C. Grant
   210

11 Counseling Issues for Latino Deaf Individuals and Their Families
   Leonardo Hidalgo and Susan Williams
   237

Part Four/Special Issues

12 Deaf College Students
   Aimee K. Whyte and Kendra Smith
   261

13 Psychotherapy and Deaf Elderly Clients
   David Feldman
   281

14 Therapeutic Issues with Recipients of Cochlear Implants
   Dale V. Atkins
   300

15 Deaf Survivors of Sexual Assault
   Sheli Barber, Dov Wills, and Marilyn J. Smith
   320

16 Chemical Dependency: An Application of a Treatment Model for Deaf People
   Debra Guthmann, Katherine Sandberg, and Janet Dickinson
   341

17 Dialectical Behavior Therapy for Deaf Clients: Cultural and Linguistic Modifications for Outpatient Mental Health Settings
   Amanda O’Hearn, Robert Pollard, and Sharon Haynes
   372

Contributors
   393

Index
   399