Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Introduction: Purpose, Structure, and Contents of the Book ix
By Benito Estrada Aranda, Javier García Muñoz
and Ines Sleeboom-van Raaij

Part 1 | Mental Health Issues and Treatment

1 Mental Health Care for Deaf People: An Approach Based on Human Rights
Ana María García García (Spain)
Javier Muñoz Bravo (Spain)

2 Important Issues in the Psychopharmacological Treatment of Deaf and Hard of Hearing People with Mental Health Disorders: Theory and Practice
Ines Sleeboom-van Raaij (the Netherlands)

3 Mental Health Services in Mexico: Challenges and Proposals
Benito Estrada Aranda (Mexico)

4 Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR) in Family Systems with Deaf Family Members
Lieke Doornkate (the Netherlands)

5 Silent Wisdom: Equine-Assisted Counseling with Deaf Clients
Karen A. Tinsley (United States)

6 Cochlear Implants: Psychosocial Implications
Irene W. Leigh (United States)
Contents

Part 2 | Deaf Populations

7 Self-Esteem of Deaf and Hard of Hearing People in Cyprus and Greece
   Katerina Antonopoulou (Greece)
   Kika Hadjikakou (Cyprus)
   Maria Charalambous (Cyprus)

8 Public Health of Deaf People
   Johannes Fellinger (Austria)

9 Quality of Life of Latino Deaf and Hard of Hearing Individuals in the United States
   Poorna Kushalnagar
   Melissa Draganac-Hawk
   Donald L. Patrick

Part 3 | Deaf Children and Their Families

10 Mental Health Problems in Deaf Children and Adolescents: Part I—Epidemiology, Etiology, and Cultural, Linguistic, and Developmental Aspects
   Tiejo van Gent (the Netherlands)

11 Mental Health Problems in Deaf Children and Adolescents: Part II—Aspects of Psychopathology
   Tiejo van Gent (the Netherlands)

12 The Mother-Child Relationship and Language Development Disorders: Studies of Deaf Adolescent Children of Hearing Parents
   Joanna Kobosko (Poland)

13 Deafness, Autism, and Diagnostics: A Case Study
   Benito Estrada Aranda (Mexico)
   Georgina Mitre Fajardo (Mexico)
   Ricardo Canal Bedia (Spain)

Final Conclusions
Contributors
Index