

CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	vii
PREFACE	ix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xi
1 Pedro Ponce de León: Myth and Reality Susan Plann	1
2 Abbé de l'Épée and the Living Dictionary Renate Fischer	13
3 The Deaf-Mute Banquets and the Birth of the Deaf Movement Bernard Mottez	27
4 Republicanism, Deaf Identity, and the Career of Henri Gaillard in Late-Nineteenth-Century France Anne T. Quartararo	40
5 Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet: Benevolent Paternalism and the Origins of the American Asylum Phyllis Valentine	53
6 Vocational Education in the Deaf American and African-American Communities Tricia A. Leakey	74
7 "Savages and Deaf-Mutes": Evolutionary Theory and the Campaign Against Sign Language in the Nineteenth Century Douglas C. Baynton	92
8 Deaf History: A Suppressed Part of General History Günther List	113

9	Education, Urbanization, and the Deaf Community: A Case Study of Toronto, 1870–1900 Margret A. Winzer	127
10	Exclusion and Integration: The Case of the Sisters of Providence of Quebec Constantina Mitchell	146
11	The Silent Worker Newspaper and the Building of a Deaf Community, 1890–1929 Robert Buchanan	172
12	Student Life at the Indiana School for the Deaf During the Depression Years Michael Reis	198
13	Founders of Deaf Education in Russia Howard G. Williams	224
14	The Education of Deaf People in Italy and the Use of Italian Sign Language Elena Radutzky	237
15	Some Problems in the History of Deaf Hungarians William O. McCagg, Jr.	252
16	Cochlear Implants: Their Cultural and Historical Meaning Harlan Lane	272
	CONTRIBUTORS	293
	INDEX	297