

CONTENTS

	ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	vii
	EDITORS' INTRODUCTION	xi
1	A Fair Chance in the Race of Life: Thoughts on the 150th Anniversary of the Founding of the Columbia Institution James M. McPherson	1
2	John Carlin and Deaf Double-Consciousness Christopher Krentz	12
3	A Legacy of Leadership: Edward Miner Gallaudet and the Columbia Institution, 1857–1864 David de Lorenzo	22
4	The Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet and Alice Cogswell Statue: Controversies and Celebrations Michael J. Olson	33
5	Two Views on Mathematics Education for Deaf Students: Edward Miner Gallaudet and Amos G. Draper Christopher A. N. Kurz	50
6	Douglas Craig, 186?-1936 Marieta Joyner	65
7	The Women of Kendall Green: Coeducation at Gallaudet, 1860–1910 Lindsey M. Parker	85
8	The Struggle to Educate Black Deaf Schoolchildren in Washington, D.C. Sandra Jowers-Barber	113

9	George Detmold, The Reformer Ronald E. Sutcliffe	132
10	Building Kendall Green: Alumni Support for Gallaudet University Noah D. Drezner	140
11	The Power of Place: The Evolution of Kendall Green Benjamin Bahan and Hansel Bauman	154
12	DPN and the Evolution of the Gallaudet Presidency I. King Jordan	170
	CONTRIBUTORS	189
	INDEX	195