

Contents

Keyword List	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Interventions, Investments, and Intersections	xiii

Part One

Identities and Locations	Introduction and Section Questions	3
“We Are of a Different Class”: Ableist Rhetoric in Deaf America, 1880–1920	Tavian Robinson	5
Intersecting Reflections	Khadijat Rashid	22
Deaf Matters: Compulsory Hearing and Ability Trouble
Kristen Harmon		31
Focus on Which (Deaf) Space? Identity and Belonging among Deaf Women in New Delhi, India	Michele Friedner	48
Contested Signs: Deaf Children, Indigeneity, and Disablement in Denmark and the United States	Lakshmi Fjord	67

Part Two

Alliances and Activism
Introduction and Section Questions		103
Identifying Allies: Explorations of Deaf-Hearing Relationships
Joan Ostrove and Gina Oliva		105

Deaf Community Approaches to HIV/AIDS Leila Monaghan and Constanze Schmaling	120
Unlikely Alliances: Crossing the Deaf and Hearing Divide Lindsey Patterson	144
Dale Dahl and Judy Heumann: Deaf Man, Disabled Woman— Allies in 1970s Berkeley Corbett Joan O’Toole	162
 Part Three
Boundaries and Overlaps Introduction and Section Questions	191
Deaf and Disability Studies: A Conversation with Yerker Andersson Yerker Andersson and Susan Burch	193
Committed Critique: An Interview with Nirmala Erevelles Nirmala Erevelles and Alison Kafer	204
“What Not to Pack”: Conducting Research among Deaf People in Tanzania Jessica Lee	222
Testing the Social Model of Disability: The United Nations and Language Access for Deaf People Soya Mori	235
The Tango: Or, What Deaf Studies and Disability Studies DO-DO Brenda Jo Brueggemann	245
Bibliography	267
Contributors	287
Index	291