

Contents

Introduction	vii
Part One
In and Out of the Community Editors' Introduction	3
Family Matters: Female Dynamics within Deaf Schools Jessica Lee	5
Was Helen Keller Deaf? Blindness, Deafness, and Multiple Identities Kim E. Nielsen	21
The Extended Family: Deaf Women in Organizations Sara Robinson	40
Deaf Women and Inequality in Educational Attainment and Occupational Status: Is Deafness or Femaleness to Blame? Sharon Barnartt	57
Part Two
(Women's) Authority and Shaping Deafness Editors' Introduction	81
Marcelina Ruiz Ricote y Fernández: Nineteenth-Century Feminist Educator of Deaf and Blind Girls Susan Plann	84

The Ladies Take Charge: Women Teachers in the Education of Deaf Students Margret Winzer	110
“Like Ordinary Hearing Children”: Mothers Raising Offspring according to Oralist Dictates Emily K. Abel	130
Merging Two Worlds Gina A. Oliva and Linda Risser Lytle	147
Part Three
Reading Deaf Women Editors’ Introduction	167
Deaf Eyes: The Allen Sisters’ Photography, 1885–1920 Brenda Jo Brueggemann	170
The Aesthetics of Linguistic Envy: Deafness and Muteness in Children of a Lesser God and The Piano Jennifer L. Nelson	189
“Slain in the Spirit” Kristen Harmon	205
How Deaf Women Produce Gendered Signs Arlene Blumenthal Kelly	226
“Beautiful, though Deaf”: The Deaf American Beauty Pageant Susan Burch	242
Bibliography	263
Contributors	285
Index	289