

CONTENTS

	PREFACE	vii
1	Genesis of a Community: The American Deaf Experience in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries Harry G. Lang	1
2	Hearing with the Eye: The Rise of Deaf Education in the United States Barry A. Crouch and Brian H. Greenwald	24
3	Origins of the American Deaf-World: Assimilating and Differentiating Societies and Their Relation to Genetic Patterning Harlan Lane, Richard C. Pillard, and Mary French	47
4	Mary Ann Walworth Booth Jill Hendricks Porco	74
5	A Tale of Two Schools: The Indiana Institution and the Evansville Day School, 1879–1912 Michael Reis	85
6	The Academic Integration of Deaf Children: A Historical Perspective John Vickrey Van Cleve	116
7	Taking Stock: Alexander Graham Bell and Eugenics, 1883–1922 Brian H. Greenwald	136
8	Deaf Autonomy and Deaf Dependence: The Early Years of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf Reginald Boyd and John Vickrey Van Cleve	153

9	The Chicago Mission for the Deaf Kent R. Olney	174
	CONTRIBUTORS	209
	INDEX	211